

Heavy Equipment Appraisals
From Every Angle

Appraising heavy equipment requires a strong partner.

For the most distinct items you insure, an average appraisal service won't cut it. IAnet confidently handles everything in the heavy equipment segment because we don't accept average. We demand exceptional, and that's what you'll receive — from claim submission to completed appraisal.

What makes IAnet different?

ACCURACY. SPEED. CHOICE.

Every member of our team has the same goal: to get you everything you need and get it right the first time, all within industry-leading cycle time. Our nationwide network of appraisers and adjusters features heavy equipment specialists we trust based on an exhaustive review of their work. Our customer service team gives you a single point of contact, tracks your claim and provides updates throughout the process. Our AccuracyAudit™ ensures your files are complete and compliant when returned.

What does IAnet offer?

VERSATILITY.

We follow your guidelines, adhere to your technology and keep your staff up to date while we manage the entire appraisal process. In short, we extend your capabilities without expending your valuable resources, regardless of the type of heavy equipment you insure or the technology you utilize.
